

In Memoriam

Sunil Aiyadurai

(d. May 25, 2002)
The world lost a kind loving person when you passed away 15 years ago. You were a special sister, dear aunt, sister in law, cousin, mentor, and extraordinary teacher to the numerous kids in the Montessori schools you taught - first in Sri Lanka, then the Maldivo islands, and last and longest (nearly 3 decades) in Edina, Minnesota.
When you died our hearts were numbed but today we smile at the wonderful memories you left us of your warm personality, and especially the enduring imprint on the many little lives of those you moulded as a selfless teacher and friend.
Remembered with love by your siblings and relatives.
Mark, Ruth, Jeremy, Jonathan and Justin (Canada).

Today brings sad memories of our dear dad, gone to rest. Those who think of him today are those who loved him best.
Love, Bernice and family.

James Anthony Dosen

On January 7th, 2012, our father, husband and friend, James Anthony Dosen, passed away peacefully in his Minnetonka home at age 61. He taught us what it means to help others, be a leader, and live with integrity. We greatly miss, but forever hold dearly, the good times and memories, especially his endlessly loving nature and wonderful sense of humor. May he go forth in peace under God's protection.

Loving Husband, Father, Teacher, politician, Scientist, photographer, writer, Lapidary enthusiast, Master Diver, Hunter, fisherman, Handyman, world traveler, animal lover & humanitarian. You inspired so many with your endless enthusiasm and zest for life. Your time with us was way Too short, we miss you so much, but your positive influence resonates with us in every life decision we make.

Lanny Lynn LaPlant

After all these years your loss we still try to deal, at the same time together we try to heal. We make it through from year to year but don't ask us to stop from shedding a tear. Missing your smile, your laugh your touch, not seeing you daily still hurts so much. Yes, we have the memories, the photos that we grip so tight while we whisper in our prayers "We miss you and we Love you Lanny, Kisses...Good Night." Our Family Circle has been pulled apart however you are still on our minds and in our Heart.

IN Loving Memory of SPC Trevor Patrick McGurran
11/7/1989 - 1/20/2013

It broke our hearts to lose you, but you did not go alone. A part of us went with you, the day God took you home. If tears could build a stairway, and heartaches make a lane, we'd walk our way to heaven, and bring you back again. In life we loved you dearly, in death we love you still, in our hearts you hold a place no one could ever fill.

Love Always, Mom & Dad

Time is too slow for those who wait,
Too swift for those who fear,
Too long for those who grieve,
Too short for those who rejoice,
But for those who love,
Time is eternity.
