Sunil Aiyadurai (d. May 25, 2002)

In 2002 you left us but memories still nestle in our hearts. The bubbly spirit and smile that lit the faces of all those you touched. The superb teaching that endeared you to the hundreds of children you taught first in Sri Lanka, then in the Maldives and longest (nearly three decades) at the Edina Montessori School in Minnesota. The photos you left behind speak volumes of skills in music, cookery, drama, travelogues, and other Montessori methods you passionately used to to enlarge the minds of young kids. Parents gratefully see their progeny shining today in diverse fields as your living legacy. Family & friends love and miss you. Mark, Ruth, Jeremy, Jonathan & Justin Aiyadurai

Feb. 22, 1945 - Jan. 9, 2011

Hard to believe it's been over four years already. Not a day goes by that I don't think about you and wish with all my heart you were still here. Sometimes, when things get a little tough and I start feeling sorry for myself, I remember all the times you were there for us and how you would always tell me everything will be alright. The memory brings happy tears to my eyes and I start feeling good again, especially knowing in my heart you're still watching over us.
I miss you sweetheart.
Love you, Dale

The moment that you left me, my heart was split in two; one side was filled with memories, the other side died with you. I often lay awake at night when the world is fast asleep, and take a walk down memory lane with tears upon my cheek. Remembering you is easy, I do it everyday; but missing you is the heartache that never goes away. I hold you tightly within my heart and there you will remain; you see life has gone on without you, but will never be the same.
We love you and miss you always. Dad, Mom, Shelby, your best friends Carter and Nathan, and countless other family and friends.

Remembering you three is easy as I do it every day, and there's still an ache within my heart that hasn't gone away. But good-bye is not forever, good-bye is not the end. It just means I will love and miss you until we meet again. Love Ma

James Anthony Dosen
On January 7th, 2012, our father, husband and friend, James Anthony Dosen, passed away peacefully in his Minnetonka home at age 61. He taught us what it means to help others, be a leader, and live with integrity. We greatly miss, but forever hold dear, the good times and memories, especially his endlessly loving nature and wonderful sense of humor. May he go forth in peace under God's protection.
